Reyes Coca-Cola - Home

Reyes Beverage Group - Home

2 What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer, mobile phone, tablet or other internet connected device by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

3 Why do we use cookies?

We use cookies to make our websites work, to try and give you a better site experience and to improve our sites and their content.

4 What personal information do we look to collect using cookies?

The cookies we use are non-intrusive and are used by most businesses. We collect only limited amounts of personal information as part of our use of cookies, such as IP addresses. In particular, we do not look to collect special categories of personal data (such as health data) or criminal convictions data through our use of cookies.

For more information about how we process your personal information in connection with our websites please read our separate privacy notice.

5 Which types of cookies do we use?

We use two main types of cookies on our websites.

Strictly necessary cookies: these are cookies that are essential for the proper operation of our websites. For example, without these cookies we would not be able to enable appropriate content from our sites based on your type of device.

Non-necessary cookies: these are all the cookies we use that are not essential for the operation of our websites. They include, for example, performance cookies that record the number of visitors to our sites and the pages they visit and which help us improve site performance.

6 Do we give you the opportunity to control the use of cookies on our sites?

We only use strictly necessary cookies on the initial loading of our websites as these cookies do not require your consent and they are strictly necessary for the operation of our sites.

The non-necessary cookies that we use require your consent before they can be set on your device. We ask for your consent preferences using our cookies banner. Our cookies banner puts the choice in your hands and enables you to consent to all or none of these non-necessary cookies.

For further information on how to manage cookies please see section 7.

7 Are there other ways in which you can control the use of cookies?

Most web browsers (including Chrome, Internet Explorer, Firefox and Safari) allow you to control your cookie settings and to delete any cookies already stored on your computer or other devices, including strictly necessary cookies.

You can control the use of cookies on your device, including deleting and blocking the cookies we and others use, through the browser settings on your device; but please note that any changes you make may affect your ability to properly use our websites.

To find out more about the way cookies work, how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.aboutcookies.org.

To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

8 Updating this cookies notice

This notice may be updated from time to time, including to reflect any changes in technology or legislation affecting the way we use cookies. Any updates to this notice will be posted on this page.
